About us

Westernport Water's core function is to provide drinking water, recycled water and wastewater services that improve the health and liveability of our community.

Our customers

a large percentage of customers are non-permanent residents

- 100,000+ visitors in peak times
- 3.9 million visitors annually
- an area covering 300 sq km

Wastewater

1,686ML

of effluent treated annually

wastewater treatment plants, one at Coronet Bay and one on Phillip Island effluent treated by South Gippsland Water annually for Kilcunda and Dalyston at its Wonthaggi treatment plant

Owns and

pump stations

Environmental stewardship

solar electricity produced during 2020-21 from solar panels at WWTPs, head office & 1 pump station

Water

ML = million litres

per capita drinking water consumption (litres per day)*

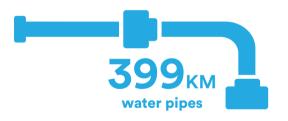

* 50% non-permanent residents not represented in this calculation.

Ian Bartlett Water Purification Plant treats:

per day minimum (winter)

per day maximum (summer)

Recycled water

A total of or 18% of wastewater received was reused during 2020-21

connected properties

new residential customers were connected in 2020-21

